The product of the cheese mafia!

In 1999, everything collapsed. An empire. Or rather, a monopoly. For 85 years, a single organisation had almost absolute control over one of Switzerland's most sacred industries: Cheese. Officially known as the Schweizer Käseunion (Swiss Cheese Union), this group did everything in its (unrivalled) power to ensure the continued prosperity of the Swiss cheese industry - from regulating cheese prices, monitoring cheese quality, marketing cheese at home and abroad ... to leading overproduction which created the national dish; 'cheese fondue.' This then eventually led to committing cheese fraud and defrauding the Swiss government of millions.
